MONTEREY COUNTY CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU NAMES BRUCE SKIDMORE NEW DIRECTOR OF SALES

Industry veteran's experience includes Marriott Hotels & Resorts, Walt Disney Parks & Resorts

MONTEREY COUNTY, CALIF. – May 23, 2007 – The Monterey County Convention & Visitors Bureau (MCCVB) recently announced that Bruce Skidmore has been named Director of Sales of the organization. Skidmore joins the bureau from Marriott/Renaissance Hotels & Resorts, where he served as Area Director of Sales for several of the organization's properties.

As Director of Sales, Skidmore, a 20-year hospitality management industry veteran, will promote Monterey County as a destination for group meetings to increase hotel room night bookings and revenue for local businesses. His responsibilities will include directing sales for groups and conventions as well as tour operators and travel agents.

Skidmore served as Area Director of Sales for Marriott/Renaissance Hotels & Resorts for four years. Previously, he was Vice President of Convention Sales and Marketing for the Mobile Bay Convention & Visitors Bureau in Mobile, Ala. and spent eight years as a Senior Sales Manager for Walt Disney Parks & Resorts in Lake Buena Vista, Fla. Skidmore began his career with Marriott Hotels and Resorts, where he spent nine years in various sales managerial roles.

"Bruce is an outstanding addition to an exceptional sales team," said Michael Oprish, MCCVB board member and General Manager of Bernardus Lodge in Carmel Valley, Calif. "His many years of multi-property sales experience, combined with extensive destination sales expertise, demonstrate a proven track record in effective leadership of sales strategies and team building."

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, Skidmore has a bachelor's degree in hotel, restaurant and institution management and is a member of Meeting Professionals International and the Society of Incentive and Travel Executives (SITE). He was previously a member of the Professional Convention Management Association and the American Society of Association Executives.
